Would you like to learn more about the part of the world your family or friends emigrated from?
Come and join us for this interactive Global Conversation where you can:

- share your memories and experiences
- meet colleagues with common ancestral roots
- enjoy light foods inspired by our selected regions
- learn about parts of the world that interest you
- mingle and make new friends

View the Webber Gallery exhibit "Becoming American: Teenagers and Immigration."

Presented by International Education and the Visual and Performing Arts program
